PRESS RELEASE: for immediate release..... Dec 30/05

Fresh Vegetable Growers of Ontario holding Annual Meeting

The new organization, the Fresh Vegetable Growers of Ontario (FVGO), is holding their first annual meeting on Tuesday, January 10 at the Quality Hotel, Woodstock beginning at 9 am. The FVGO is committed to provide the highest level of support and recognition for the fresh vegetable grower. “The organization is committed to a substantial marketing and promotion plan for field fresh Ontario vegetables as well as research that addresses grower’s needs” says John Jaques, current chair.

The annual meeting agenda includes: Gord Surgeoner on Healthy Foods, Marketing and Promotion Plans, Updates on Safety Nets, Research and the Food Safety Network. “The meeting will allow for discussion on grower survey results and priority setting input from participants” says John Jaques, “we want to hear from our growers and respond to their needs.”

The FVGO annual meeting is open to all fresh vegetable growers. There is no charge to attend and lunch will be provided.
